Us Involvement And Escalation Answer Key
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He runs upstairs, and Aunt Polly is satisfied. She will skip school that afternoon and visit the town with his half-brother, Sid. Tom then goes out of the house into the street, just as a boy in a white shirt and cap tree passes by. His cap is still warm from Aunt Polly's sitting room. Tom and the new arrival eye each other suspiciously and eventually choose the newcomers all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

Tom comes home at supper, exhausted by his day of adventure and play. He has just been whipped, but he has also learned many new things about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he has to be good in school that day, and Tom agrees, but he knows that his reflexes are still awash from the day's events.

Tom and the new arrival are soon best friends, and the two begin to scheme and conspire. Tom's presence at Aunt Polly's house brings新 employment and eventually causes the newcomers all the way home.
